I adore your children Hallie I will never leave them. I will always be there for them and I'm sorry you you feel rejected by me. But you do realize I don't care about anything but the kids. You will get better and you have a chance of being at least a mother that doesn't purposely harm there children. Just keep with it and lean on people that understand how to love. You'll stop doing you and maybe you will do for someone else. You will wake up one day and realize that you can actually think of an act of love that you can do for someone besides yourself. And I hope you have someone to turn to in bed in my brothers' house and that that act of love can be for him or her or them and not a secret someone. That will be a special day in your life and I hope that you remember me with a smile. And say I wish I could call him and tell him I finally get what they meant. And don't feel as if you lost the two best men you or anyone could have ever even dreamed of. You got just what you wanted for a time and all is not lost. My family will never disrespect you around the children or in public. Have a great time at the beach with all of your friends who love you so much- Devon is a special person

Hunter's last transfer to me, via ApplePay, for girls was 6/12. Hunt transferred $2,000.

Below are money transfers and purchases for girls. Finnegan's were mostly for her apartment.
I didn't give any money to Naomi - I pay for her gym as a gift and her workouts but I don't lend her money. I'm actually hoping she will take a loan and take responsibility for her cost of living.
I do spend money/lend to Finn and Maisy.

You may know that I do not receive child support. Hunter agreed to pay 100% of girls' costs through graduate school. I am committed to him paying the full cost.

Not sure if Hunt is asking for itemized. Below is expenses. Most are transfers to girls. Total is $3,108, plus cost of visiting schools.

Let me know if you need anything else.

Thanks Katie.

Kathleen does not receive child support because she choose not to although offered because it is an advantage to her and a detriment to me with regards to taxes and it would have made an already outrageously generous settlements offer look insanely generous but likely un-supportable by me. And she is making not paying and has not paid literally a dime for even food for Maisy which I cover for maisy through Uber eats and Grubb- hub which she and Kathleen seem to use almost every other day. And for this and about 10,000.000 other reasons like the audi and car registration with Morning Joan! Below is a picture of a bill Naomi received at school. It's from a time when she had an x-ray done and didn't give her insurance card. Do you think you could look into it?

Will do! I'll call and say this is still pending with insurance and hopefully they'll lay off for a bit. I think we can still resubmit this to insurance since it hasn't been a year yet.

Im sorry I didn't make call. Partially logistics but mainly heat. I know that I lend credence to the idea that I'm not available not there not aware of whats going Ono begin to not me offended in any way buy the person I love the most bc you and Mom made me he of course came after the only person in the world who truly is blood of blood bone of my bone _ no one will ever share that bond you are one in the same and will be together forever.' lthat was the one thing I heard and I knew he did too it a=was always ours and ours alone no matter how much we fought and punched and screamed and said the most horrible things to each other the truth is the frustration always lay in the fav=ct that it would never stick not even for a minute not eb-ven for the time it took to realix=zed the next you were about to say was sure vanity or hubris or for show or whatever it was uypu kew it woudnet be anyd\gjhlesaspaid and i paid like I dad co-signed each loan then which was only 7500K per semester which we both took in loans in our names whaight tutition which ything but a blank a rubber dagger or the one I always dreaded the most...a lesson to be taught (in public usually in from t of a boarding school crowd). You know he only invited me once to Lilly's when I was a third year at Yale and had already secured a jon=b that would pay all his tuition (both college and law school- he only had something like 56K left because e we both worked through college from freshman year and Dad never paid one dime for room boarding books summer classes just str m sure you and Mom both said it in some way slightly different but all my fathers words but really have tthat I am unreliable and inconsistent.
